

Unity business group is engaged in different business activities that support and enhance the parent companies core businesses activities.

With its prominent business managers and shareholders, it has found the right leadership that has enabled it to be successful in its line of import activities. The managers have input their years of management expertise to lead the company to its current growth rate following the vision of the founder Ato Getu Gelete. Its current line of business are:

- Transportation services: road and ship, solid and liquid transport
- Transit service
- Packing Service & Import export